A welcoming entrance porch opens into the entrance hall, setting the tone for the spacious accommodation beyond. The bright south-facing living room features a log burner and provides a comfortable focal point to the ground floor, while two bedrooms offer useful flexibility for family living, guests or home working. The larger of the two benefits from French doors opening towards the garden.

The modern ground floor bathroom is well appointed, while the kitchen/diner provides a sociable and practical space with a recently refitted kitchen, adjoining sunroom and direct access to the garden. An understairs pantry provides valuable additional storage.

Upstairs, the landing leads to two further bedrooms and a second modern bathroom. One bedroom enjoys far-reaching views towards the Downs, while the other features two south-facing opening Velux windows and useful eaves storage. A cupboard on the landing houses the combi boiler.

The impressive external space is a particular feature, with the wraparound garden having been exceptionally well maintained and incorporating lawns, established flower borders, decking and patio areas. The versatile garage is divided to provide both storage/workshop space and benefits from power and lighting. A rear gate connects to the driveway, which provides ample parking for several vehicles.

With recently fitted carpets, two modern bathrooms, a refitted kitchen and a highly useful combination of indoor and outdoor space, the property offers a versatile and well-maintained home in a desirable and peaceful setting.
