We are delighted to offer this bright and spacious one-bedroom first-floor apartment, ideally positioned in the heart of Worthing town centre. Formerly the show flat for this individually designed development, the property benefits from a distinctive layout and specification, with each home within the development having its own individual character. Offering a generous open-plan living space, contemporary finishes and a highly convenient location, this appealing home is ideal for first-time buyers, professionals, downsizers or investors.

An inviting entrance hall provides access to all the principal rooms, with the impressive open-plan lounge, kitchen and dining room forming the heart of the home. This generous space offers plenty of room for comfortable seating and dining, while a striking floor-to-ceiling window fills the room with natural light and enjoys views over Chapel Road.

The contemporary fitted kitchen is neatly positioned to one side, creating a practical yet sociable living environment. The double bedroom is a generous and comfortable room with useful built-in wardrobe storage, while the modern shower room has been finished to a high standard and features an electric shower and contemporary fittings.

Situated in the heart of Worthing town centre, an excellent range of shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities are all close at hand. Worthing seafront and the town's wider attractions are also within easy reach, making this an exceptionally convenient location.
