Accessed via stairs to the second floor, the accommodation opens into a long and welcoming entrance hall leading to all principal rooms.

A particular feature is the spacious west-facing lounge, where a large bay window allows plenty of natural light to fill the room. An attractive original Art Deco fireplace provides a wonderful focal point and complements the character of the building.

The modern Shaker-style kitchen is fitted with a range of units complemented by wood-effect worktops, with space and plumbing for a washing machine and space for a fridge/freezer. A rear door opens onto the fire escape, which provides access down towards the communal garden.

There are two good-sized double bedrooms, together with a well-presented bathroom featuring attractive part-tiled walls, a bath and wash basin. A separate WC completes the internal accommodation.

Outside, the building is surrounded by well-maintained communal gardens, including a delightful and secluded "secret garden" to the rear. Residents also have the use of a communal bike store and first-come, first-served non-allocated parking.

Further benefits include double glazing and communal heating, with the heating costs included within the maintenance charge. With its wealth of Art Deco charm, generous accommodation and superb position close to the seafront, this appealing apartment would make an excellent home or investment.
