This large studio apartment is located within an imposing and attractive, mellow brick building which immediately sets the tone for the interior of the property. Entry is through a period style front door leading into a spacious reception hallway where an attractive bannister staircase leads to upstairs floors.

The location is very convenient, being just to the west of central Hove, with a wide range of local shops on your doorstep. Hove station is also easily accessible, making this the perfect property for commuters. Local schools and Hove seafront are just a short walk away.
