The heart of the home is the open-plan bespoke kitchen and dining area, perfect for family life and entertaining, complemented by a large sitting room that frames breathtaking panoramic views over Great Malvern. The ground floor also offers a practical utility room and a downstairs shower room.

Upstairs, you'll find four well-proportioned bedrooms, including a master and a well equipped family bathroom.

The self-contained annex provides outstanding flexibility – ideal for guests, extended family, or a home office – while the single garage offers secure ample storage.

Perfectly positioned close to Malvern Town Centre, with its direct rail links to Worcester, Birmingham and London, the property offers immediate access to the Malvern Hills, renowned for their scenic walks, perfect for the ultimate dog walk.

This is more than just a home – it's a lifestyle, offering space, comfort, and nature on your doorstep.

Great Malvern, with its wonderful Malvern Hills adjoining the properties, is the main focal point for the district and retains its Victorian grandeur with its listed railway station and Malvern Festival Theatre.

In addition, there is a rare mix of boutique shops and cafes, as well as a Waitrose and further high street retailers.

The county town and cathedral city of Worcester, lying on the banks of The River Severn, is some 8 miles northeast providing for high street shopping and characterised by one of England's great Cathedrals, its Racecourse, County Cricket Ground, Premiership Rugby Club and University. The M5 motorway, accessed via J7 at South Worcester, provides onward travel to Birmingham and the surrounding industrial and commercial areas as well as Birmingham International Airport, the M40 and London. The M5 South also provides for commuting to Cheltenham, Gloucester and Bristol. This has a significant impact on Worcestershire's accessibility to the capital and other regional centres.

If education is a priority, then Worcestershire is blessed with an enviable mix of schooling at all levels, including a variety of independent establishments, allowing parents to select the right environment for their children's needs. Malvern gives its name to both The College and Malvern St James, whilst at Worcester there is the King's Schools and Royal Grammar Schools
