A welcoming open-plan hallway creates an immediate sense of space and light, flowing effortlessly through to the main living areas and offering direct access to the garden – perfect for entertaining or everyday family life.

At the heart of the home is a spacious and cosy sitting room, complete with a log-burning stove – ideal for relaxed evenings in.

The recently renovated, well-equipped kitchen offers generous storage and worktop space, it benefits from a Stoves Double Oven, integrated dishwasher and wine fridge while a separate utility room provides convenient and practical support for busy family life.

Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms are served by two modern bathrooms, creating a comfortable layout suited to growing families.

Outside, the home sits behind a gated, recently resurfaced and landscaped driveway with ample parking for multiple vehicles, plus a detached double garage. A self-contained home office provides excellent space for remote working, and there is potential for an annex (STPP) – offering flexible living arrangements for multigenerational families or guests.

The south-facing garden is a peaceful haven, featuring a serene carp pond, mature trees like Copper Beech, laurel bushes, a woodland area, raised beds, a greenhouse, and an abundance of lush plants. It's regularly visited by peacocks, muntjacs, and a wide variety of other wildlife.

Located in the sought-after village of Martley. The village offers a local shop, filling station and Post Office and village hall. The Tap and Run pub (in the cricket club building) and the Crown (recently reopened with a coffee shop, restaurant and bar) are within easy distance. There are also wonderful pubs in the local area including the Admiral Rodney and The Talbot at Knightwick.

Located a short drive away in the village is Martley CE Primary School and the renowned Chantry School. In the independent sector, Worcester is home to King's School and the Royal Grammar School.

Approximately 10 miles away is the historic Cathedral City of Worcester which offers extensive amenities including hospitals, bars, restaurants and cafes, cultural and sporting venues.
