The contemporary kitchen features sleek quartz worktops, well-planned storage, and a practical layout suited to both keen cooks and casual dining.

Hillside House includes potential for three/five bedrooms, with the master bedroom offering a stylish en-suite. A modern family bathroom serves the remaining rooms, ensuring comfort for all.

The lower ground floor, currently a games room and studio with cloakroom, offers flexible potential as a private guest space or an income-generating annexe.

On either side of the house there are terraced areas – ideal for year-round entertaining. A dedicated workshop keeps garden tools neatly stored up in the woodland garden, where meandering paths lead to the back gate offering direct access to St. Ann's Well and the hills.

Ample driveway parking ensures convenience for residents and guests alike.

Great Malvern, with its wonderful Malvern Hills adjoining the properties, is the main focal point for the district and retains its Victorian grandeur with its listed railway station and Malvern Festival Theatre. In addition, there is a rare mix of boutique shops and cafes, as well as a Waitrose and further high street retailers. The county town and cathedral city of Worcester, lying on the banks of The River Severn, is some 8 miles northeast providing for high street shopping and characterised by one of England's great Cathedrals, its Racecourse, County Cricket Ground, Premiership Rugby Club and University. The M5 motorway, accessed via J7 at South Worcester, provides onward travel to Birmingham and the surrounding industrial and commercial areas as well as Birmingham International Airport, the M40 and London. The M5 South also provides for commuting to Cheltenham, Gloucester and Bristol. Whilst Malvern benefits from railway stations at Great Malvern and Malvern Link, the Worcester Parkway Railway Station, situated to the east of Worcester, increases the capacity to London as well as reducing the journey time.
