Description

This home is incredibly spacious and bright. Downstairs there are two reception rooms, plus a large eat-in kitchen. Upstairs are four bedrooms, the master boasting an en suite shower room. An additional family bathroom is situated off the landing. The rear garden is secluded and offers ample entertaining space. Uniquely, this home benefits from two garages. One is situated at the back of the house and includes power and electric gates.

Situation

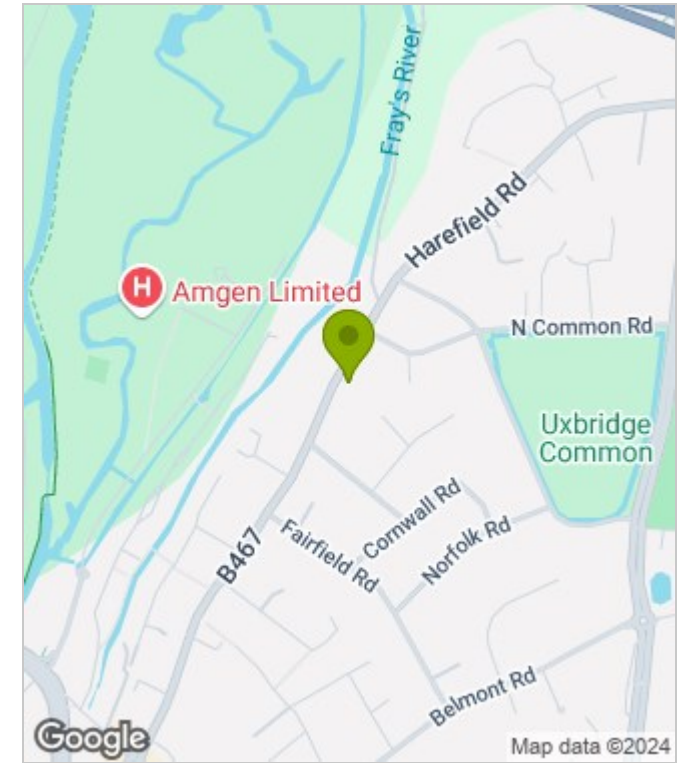

Harefield Road is a sought after location in North Uxbridge, a short walk from the town centre with its multitude of shops, restaurants, bars, bus links and the Metropolitan/Piccadilly line train station. There are a number of well-regarded local schools within close proximity including Hermitage primary and Vyners secondary school and the A40/M40 and M4 are a short drive away offering access to London, Heathrow and the Home Counties.
