Description

The property is situated in the ever popular Glencoe Development in Yeading which is just a short walk away from local amenities including Tesco's, B&Q, Doctors surgery and Yeading Marina offering pleasant walks along the Grand Union Canal. The accommodation comprises a spacious and open plan reception room/dining room, which opens onto the fitted kitchen. There is loft space, a double bedroom with a walk in wardrobe space and a fitted bathroom comprising a three piece suite. Outside, there is a private garden and an allocated parking space.

Situation

The property has lots to offer with the M4, M40, M25 and Heathrow Airport in easy reach, you really are going to be spoilt for transport links and with the crossrail due to arrive in Hayes, those trips into Central London will be as quick as you like. Also if shops and local amenities are on your shortlist, then you have supermarkets right on your doorstep and access to many other retail shops in walking distance too.
