Abbott and Abbott Estate Agents present to the market a simply stunning detached house of immense character, set in peaceful, mature grounds and situated in one of the prettiest locations in the town. Believed to originally date from the mid-1930's, with later extensions, but built with strong Tudor influences, the property offers well proportioned and versatile accommodation, with several rooms having double aspects, and includes four bedrooms - three with en suite facilities, and up to five reception rooms including a charming 17'9 x 15'9 sitting room with beamed ceiling and handsome inglenook fireplace. There is also a welcoming 17'5 x 12'10 entrance hall, and a large L-shaped kitchen/breakfast room with gas-fired Aga. There are also many delightful period features such as wood-strip floors, battened doors, a wide wooden staircase, fireplaces and diamond-light windows. Outside, the property is set on a substantial, yet private plot on the corner of Collington Lane West and Birchington Close, well screened from both roads by a beautiful variety of mature shrubs and trees. There is also a detached double garage with associated workshop and a most useful attic room - ideal for home working/hobbies/ consulting room, etc - and extensive parking for several vehicles.

The property is situated in a pretty lane of fine, individual properties, only a few hundred yards from Little Common shops and services and about a mile from Cooden Beach golf course, seafront and railway station, with services to London, Brighton and Ashford International. The town centre is just under two miles.

This is a unique opportunity to secure, quite simply, one of the most distinctive and individual properties in the town.
