Built in the late-1960's by local builders, R A Larkin, the penthouse offers bright and well-planned accommodation, with far-reaching views from most rooms, which includes three bedrooms - one with an en-suite shower room and the two larger bedrooms with access to a west-facing terrace, a contemporary kitchen with Bosch appliances, and a contemporary bathroom. The centrepiece is a lovely, south-facing dining/living room benefitting from glorious views over the town to the sea, with bi-fold doors opening onto a wide south-facing balcony taking full advantage of the views. Outside, there is a wide garage beneath the block. Gas central heating is installed and there are uPVC double glazed windows and exterior doors. The block itself features an entryphone and a lift to the fifth floor, with a further flight of stairs serving just the penthouse.

The property is situated within a few hundred yards of local shops in Collington Avenue, Collington Halt railway station and close to the seafront at West Parade, via a footpath from Terminus Road. Buses stop immediately outside the block and the town centre is less than a mile distant.
