Hogarth House Filsham Road, St. Leonards-On-Sea,
£289,950

Exceptionally well presented throughout, this substantial first-floor apartment offers beautifully proportioned three-bedroom accommodation, a private balcony, far-reaching views and the considerable advantage of a private garage all within a highly regarded and well-maintained purpose-built development.

The apartment has been thoughtfully and comprehensively modernised, combining generous room sizes with a refined contemporary finish. At its heart is an impressive living room, flooded with natural light and opening directly onto a private balcony from which there are superb open views across the surrounding area.

The stylish fitted kitchen is exceptionally well appointed, offering an excellent range of cabinetry together with ample preparation and storage space.
