Further Property Information

The current owners have significantly upgraded the property in recent years, including the installation of a new pressurised heating system with radiators and a combi boiler (2020), along with a new electrical consumer unit (2020). The interior has been enhanced with upgraded doors, skirting, and architraves throughout, while the kitchen and bathrooms were modernised between 2020 and 2021. New windows and doors have also been installed throughout between 2020 and 2024. The living area benefits from an engineered oak floor, with laminate flooring fitted in the kitchen and additional areas. Skylights are electrically operated via a wall-mounted remote, and the garage houses the pressurised combi boiler, which is controlled by a Nest system.
