A delightful deceptively large two bedroom ground floor conversion garden flat located in the heart of Chatterton Village.

The property is of unusual shape and boasts lots of great features. There is a large lounge leading on to very good size white gloss fitted kitchen. The main bedroom is a double bedroom with a good size single second bedroom. There is a good size modern shower room and a beautifully presented rear garden with decking.

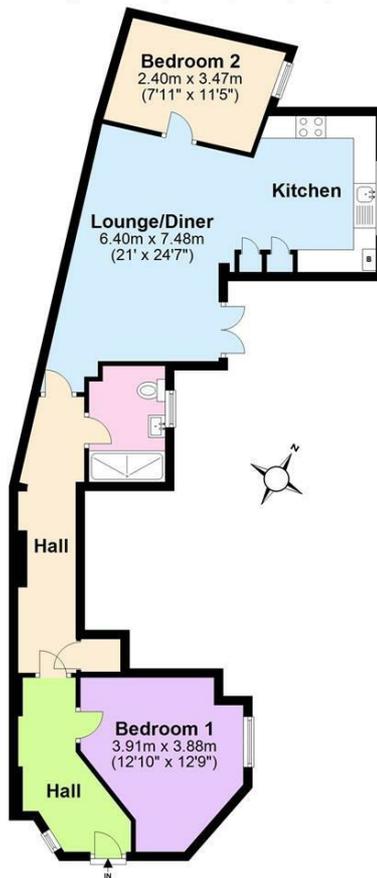

Additional features include gas-fired central heating, double glazing, off-street parking with Bickley train station just a walk away.

The property will be available immediately and is offered unfurnished.
