Looking for a house close to the Langley Park and Unicorn Schools, that's also near to local shops, restaurants, cafes, and Eden Park Station for commuting to London? Look no further. This beautiful 4 bedroom family home built in the 1930s is full of natural light, with a rear extension that serves as the hub of the house and features an open plan kitchen/diner, downstairs cloakroom, and utility room, perfect for a busy family with young children or teenagers.

Further highlights of the house include a charming entrance hall with attractive stained glass panels on either side of the original panelled front door, a cosy living room at the front of the house with a decorative wrought iron fireplace and stripped wooden flooring, three double bedrooms all with stripped wooden flooring and a master bedroom in the loft extension with a contemporary en-suite shower room.

Outside is a glorious south-facing 100' garden, mainly laid to lawn with a mature shrub border and fenced boundaries, also featuring a paved patio, garden studio with light and power currently used as a craft workshop, an open framed structure (with potential to be a greenhouse), a substantial fishpond, and a spacious double garage.
