PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

The ground floor is dominated by a remarkable open-plan kitchen, dining and family room. It's a huge space with polished concrete flooring, complete with underfloor heating, and a rear wall of glass sliding panels that open the house straight out to the garden. The kitchen itself is sleek and cleverly designed, with smart details such as a hidden sink system and a striking central island. There's also a welcoming sitting room to the front, along with a cloakroom, utility and a useful workshop or store.

Upstairs on the first floor, there are four bedrooms, giving plenty of flexibility for family life or working from home. Bedroom two benefits from its own en suite, while the others share a well-appointed family bathroom.

The top floor is given over to a fabulous main suite. The bedroom is large and bright, with a fitted wardrobe and its own en suite. French doors lead out to a private roof terrace, ideal for enjoying the morning sun or winding down at the end of the day. Two fold-out Velux balcony windows add another clever touch, bringing light, fresh air and views.

The garden is every bit as impressive as the house itself. South-facing and fully landscaped, it has a resin gravel finish at house level, framed by a smart retaining wall with steps leading up to a slightly higher section laid with quality astro turf; creating a low-maintenance yet stylish space for relaxing and entertaining.

To the front, the property is equally well presented, with a resin bond finish providing off-street parking, set behind a front wall and electric gate for both security and privacy.

This is a home that combines scale, style and practicality in equal measure - a rare find on Chapel Way.
