PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

In architectural terms, we love to see a variation of housing styles, and have our fair share within the Surrey Hills area, so when something just that little bit different shows up, we like to embrace it and ensure that every element of it is shown from the very best angle; so with that in mind, we are delighted to offer you "Oakley". Set back on it's plot, located on arguably one of the best roads in Walton on the Hill village and only a short distance from the Heath itself, is this contemporary 4 bedroom detached home, offering just over 2700 sq ft of accommodation, all of which provides a stylish home that reflects modern living, be it for a downsizer or a growing young family.

As you walk through the entrance hall and in to the large open space that welcomes you, you are instantly aware of the light and flow that clearly spreads across the whole house. The kitchen/dining/family room that welcomes you, with its rising staircase, is just the starter, with open doors opening out to the garden, a "link" hallway with gallery above provides access to a study and sitting room, which too has double doors opening to the gardens. To the first floor the star of the show is undoubtedly the primary suite, with access across the galleried landing and both a dressing room and ensuite, whilst there are a further three bedrooms, one with an en-suite, and a family bathroom. The specification also includes wooden flooring, fireplaces, high ceilings, radiators, modern kitchen and bathrooms, double glazed windows, and a stylish interior style with a nod to the mid century era. This is a home of timeless class, something that has been ensured by the love and attention given the current owners, and we would be delighted to show and tell you more, should you be interested.
