PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

We have had the privilege of acting on behalf of many a family over the years, but not for many who built their own house and never moved; until now, of course. This is a story of a man with a vision, and who made that vision a reality, literally bit by bit, and who created a home for his family; and the house he built is every bit as good as the story.

Offering just under 2500 sq ft of footprint, this 1970`s 4 bedroom detached home offers great space and flow withing its current configuration, whilst offering endless opportunities to remodel, possibly extend (subject to local planning authority) and all with a plot that could offer further development opportunities, although our clients are not looking to consider any offer that are subject to planning.

The main house currently offers an inviting hallway, large dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, utility room, great size sitting room, and bedroom 4 with en-suite, with three further bedrooms to the first floor, one with en-suite and a family bathroom. The property also benefits from gas fired heating by radiators and double glazing.

To the outside, this is a home that exceeds all normal expectations. A large front drive provides ample parking and gives access to an attached single garage and separate double garage, whilst to the rear is a vast area of lawn, featuring an outdoor swimming pool and a well-established, secluded rear garden.

We hope we have provided enough information for you take further interest in either asking further questions or of course seeing the property for yourself.

The nearby town of Epsom with its iconic Clock Tower and the modern Ashley Centre offers a blend of high-street shopping, cafés, and twice weekly markets as well as a farmers' market. Epsom offers train services to London Bridge, Waterloo, Dorking and Guildford. Local bus services provide frequent connections to Kingston upon Thames and many other Surrey towns.

For families, the location is highly rated: several reputable state schools such as Glyn and Rosebery are nearby, together with outstanding private options like Epsom College and City of London Freeman's School.
