The dining kitchen is generously proportioned and fitted with a good range of shaker-style units, complemented by a variety of integrated appliances and a central island with breakfast bar. The dining area enjoys views over the garden through French doors set within a canted bay window. A door from the kitchen leads into a useful utility room, offering space for white goods and access to the side of the property. The main reception room sits adjacent to the dining kitchen and spans the depth of the property, with windows to the front, French doors to the rear, and a log-burning stove creating a cosy focal point. The ground floor is completed by a versatile study/snug and a downstairs cloakroom.

To the first floor, there are four double bedrooms and three bath/shower rooms. The principal bedroom is positioned to the front of the property and benefits from built-in wardrobes and a spacious en-suite shower room. The guest bedroom also sits to the front and features its own en-suite. The remaining two double bedrooms are located to the rear, enjoying open views, and are served by a family bathroom comprising a shower bath, wash hand basin, low-flush WC, and heated towel rail.

Outside

Externally, the property offers a tarmac driveway providing off-road parking for two vehicles, along with access to a double garage with up-and-over doors. Pedestrian access to the side leads through to the rear garden. The rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn, with a patio spanning the width of the property and a variety of planted borders providing year-round interest. The garden is enclosed on all sides, offering a good degree of privacy and security, with a half-height rear fence allowing uninterrupted views across the Polo Fields beyond.
