

RIDGEMERE

GADDESBY LEICESTERSHIRE

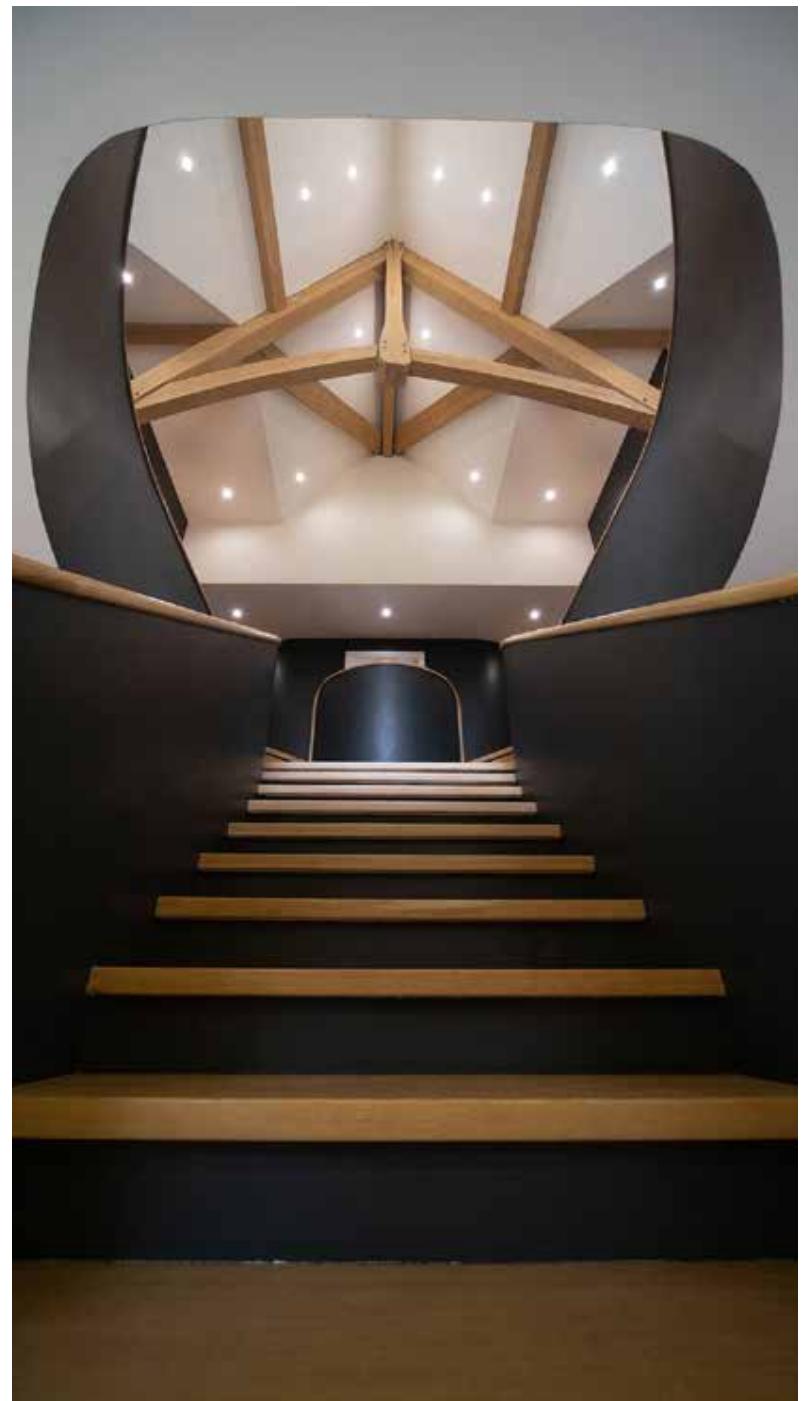

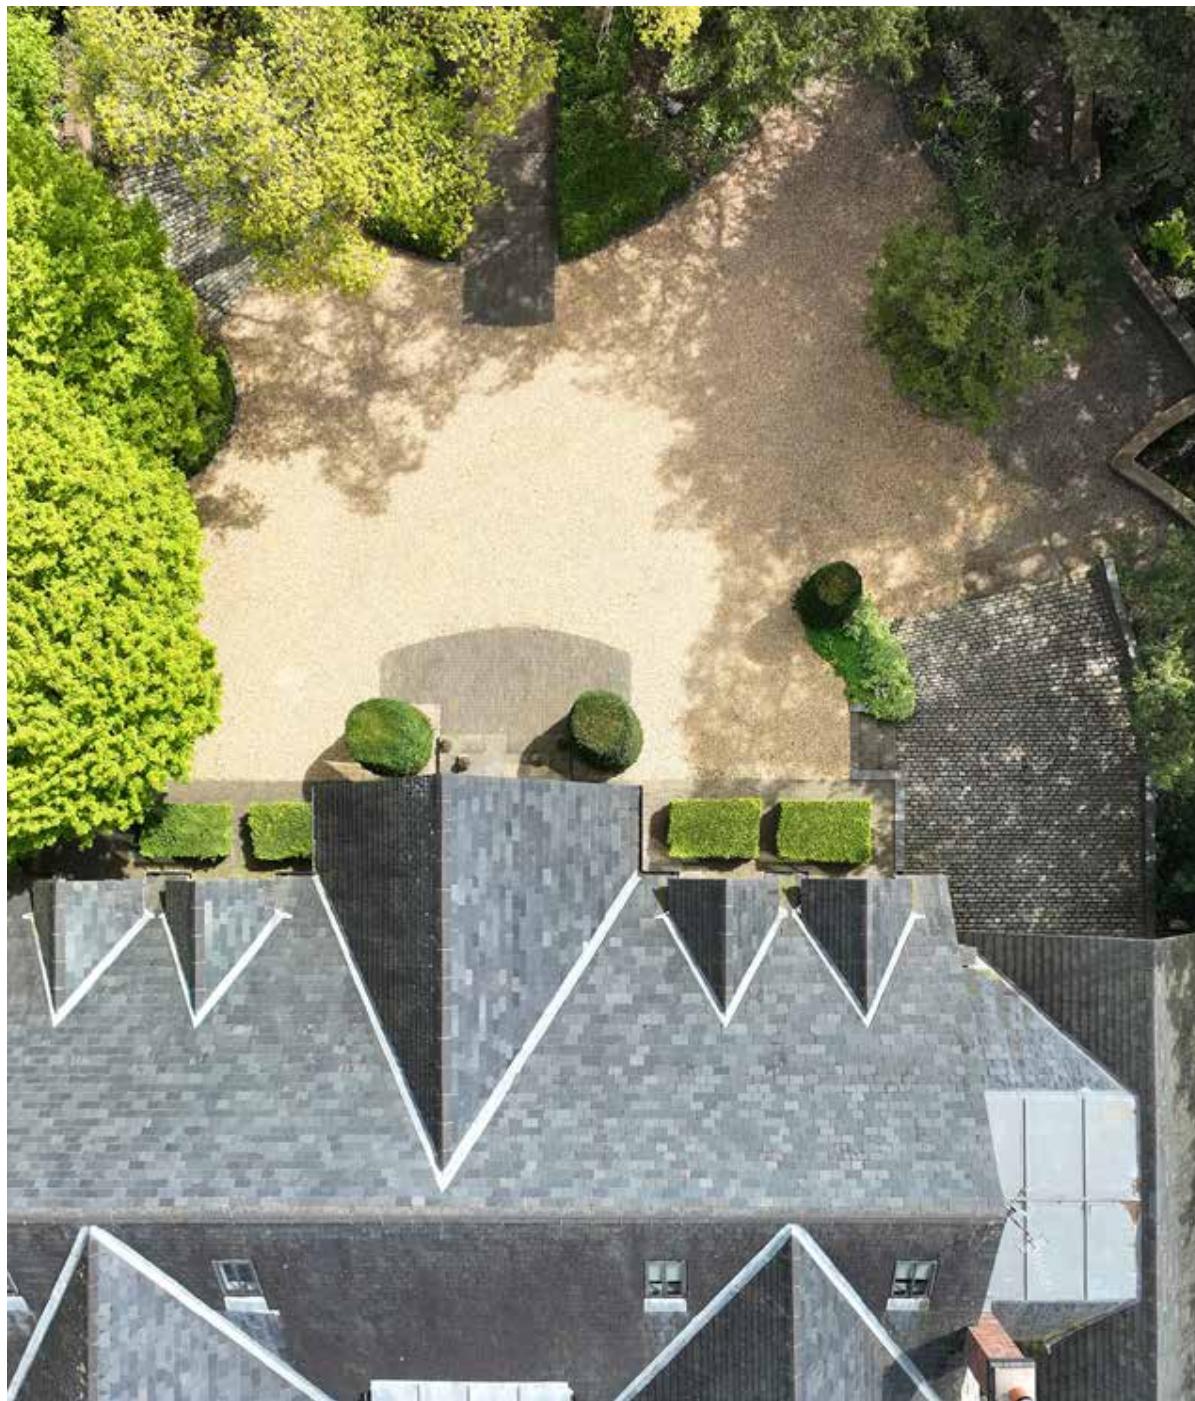

An outstanding and contemporary village house designed with flare and extraordinary attention to detail on a stunning four acre plot in a prime Leicestershire village.

Six bedrooms
Gymnasium
Three reception rooms
Breath taking hall and landing
Utility
Excellent garaging
Incredible landscaped formal gardens in a parklands style
Paddock
Prime location convenient to local schooling.

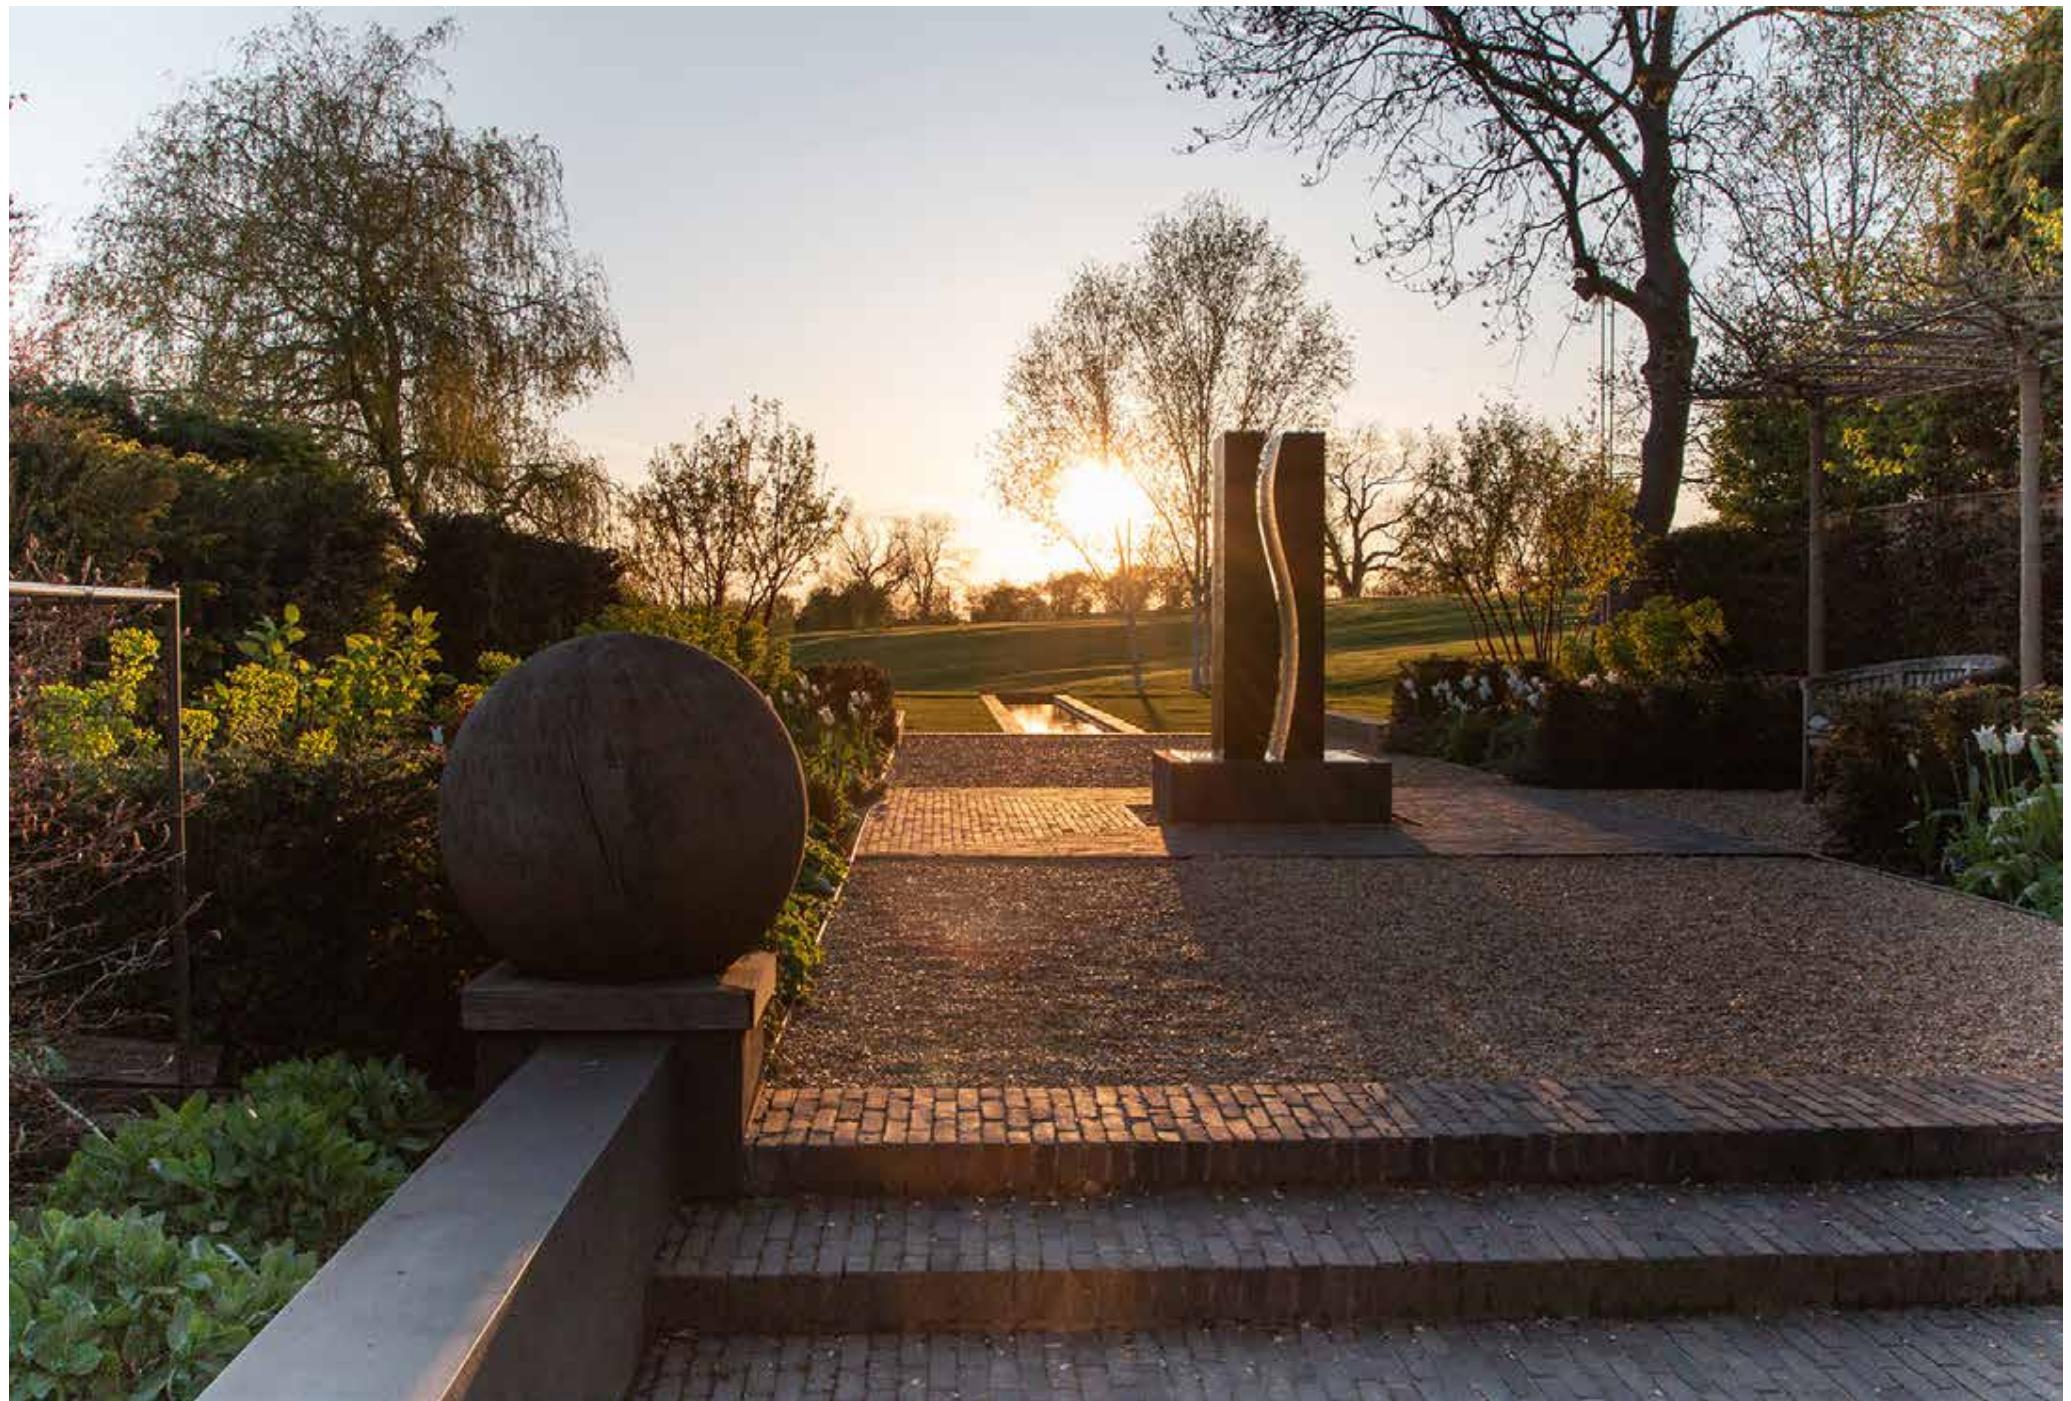

Internally a wonderful hall and landing with a curved staircase sets the tone. The principal rooms of the house enjoy the sun from the south westerly aspect and leads directly onto outdoor entertaining spaces, which have been designed by award winning landscape designer Ian Stubbs.

To the front of the property is a large parking court, set amongst mature trees for added privacy leading to a show garage.

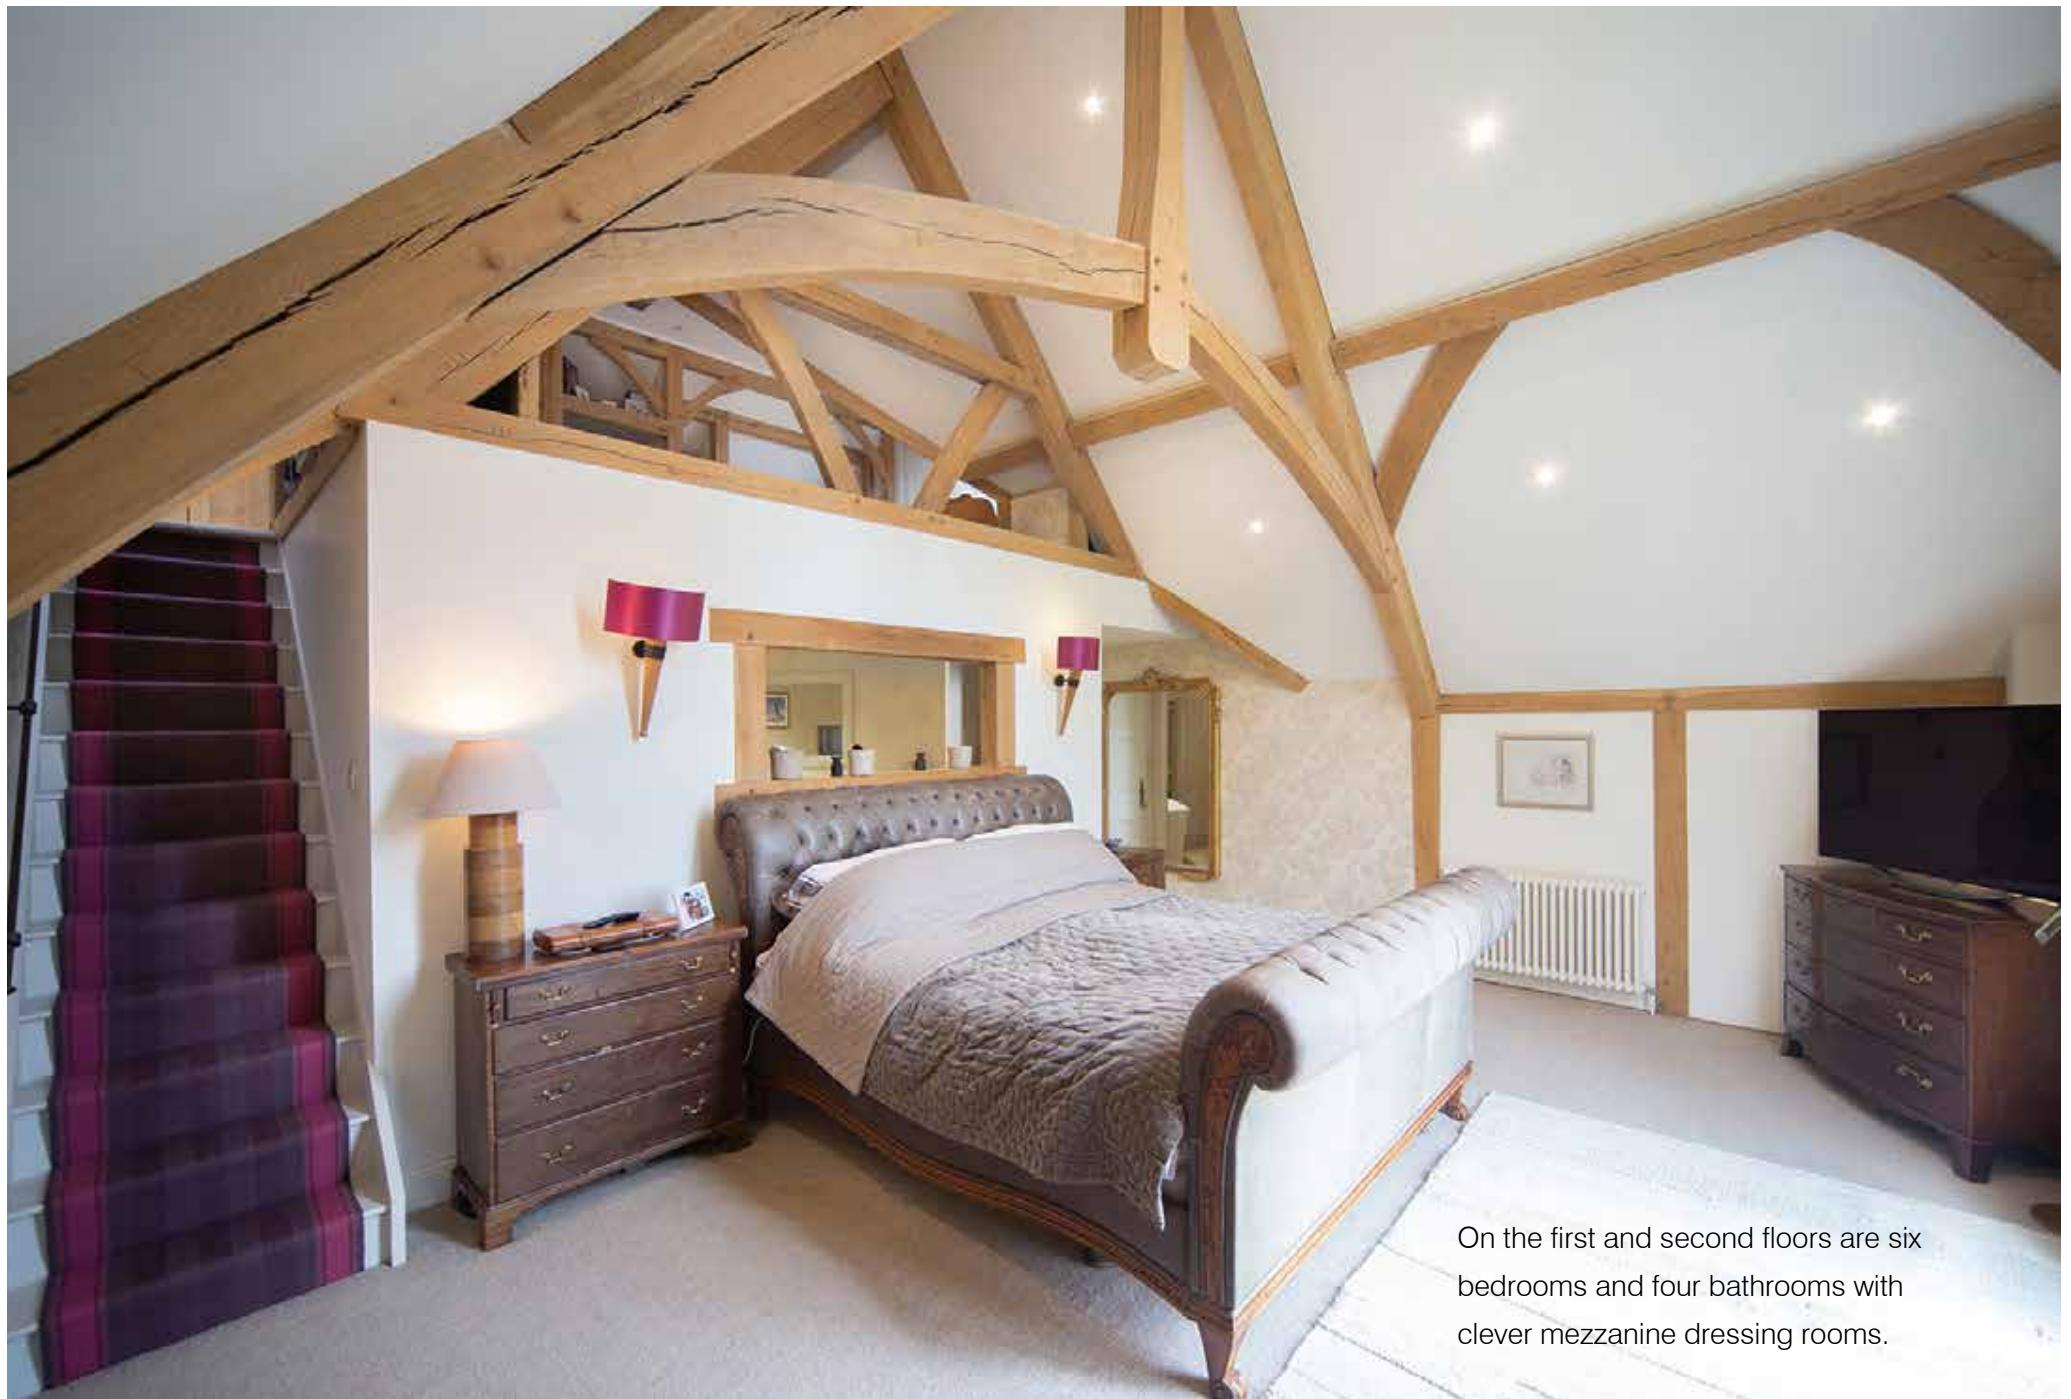

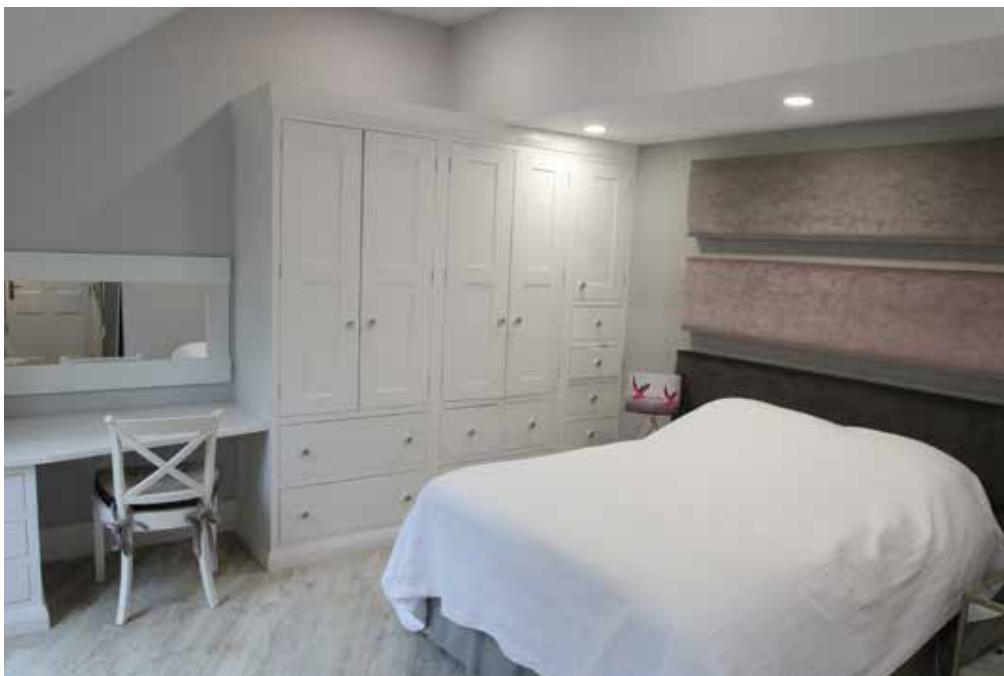

The gardens afford complete privacy and lead via a series of exquisite gravel and cobble pathways to a rill and a large sunken terrace providing views over parklands.

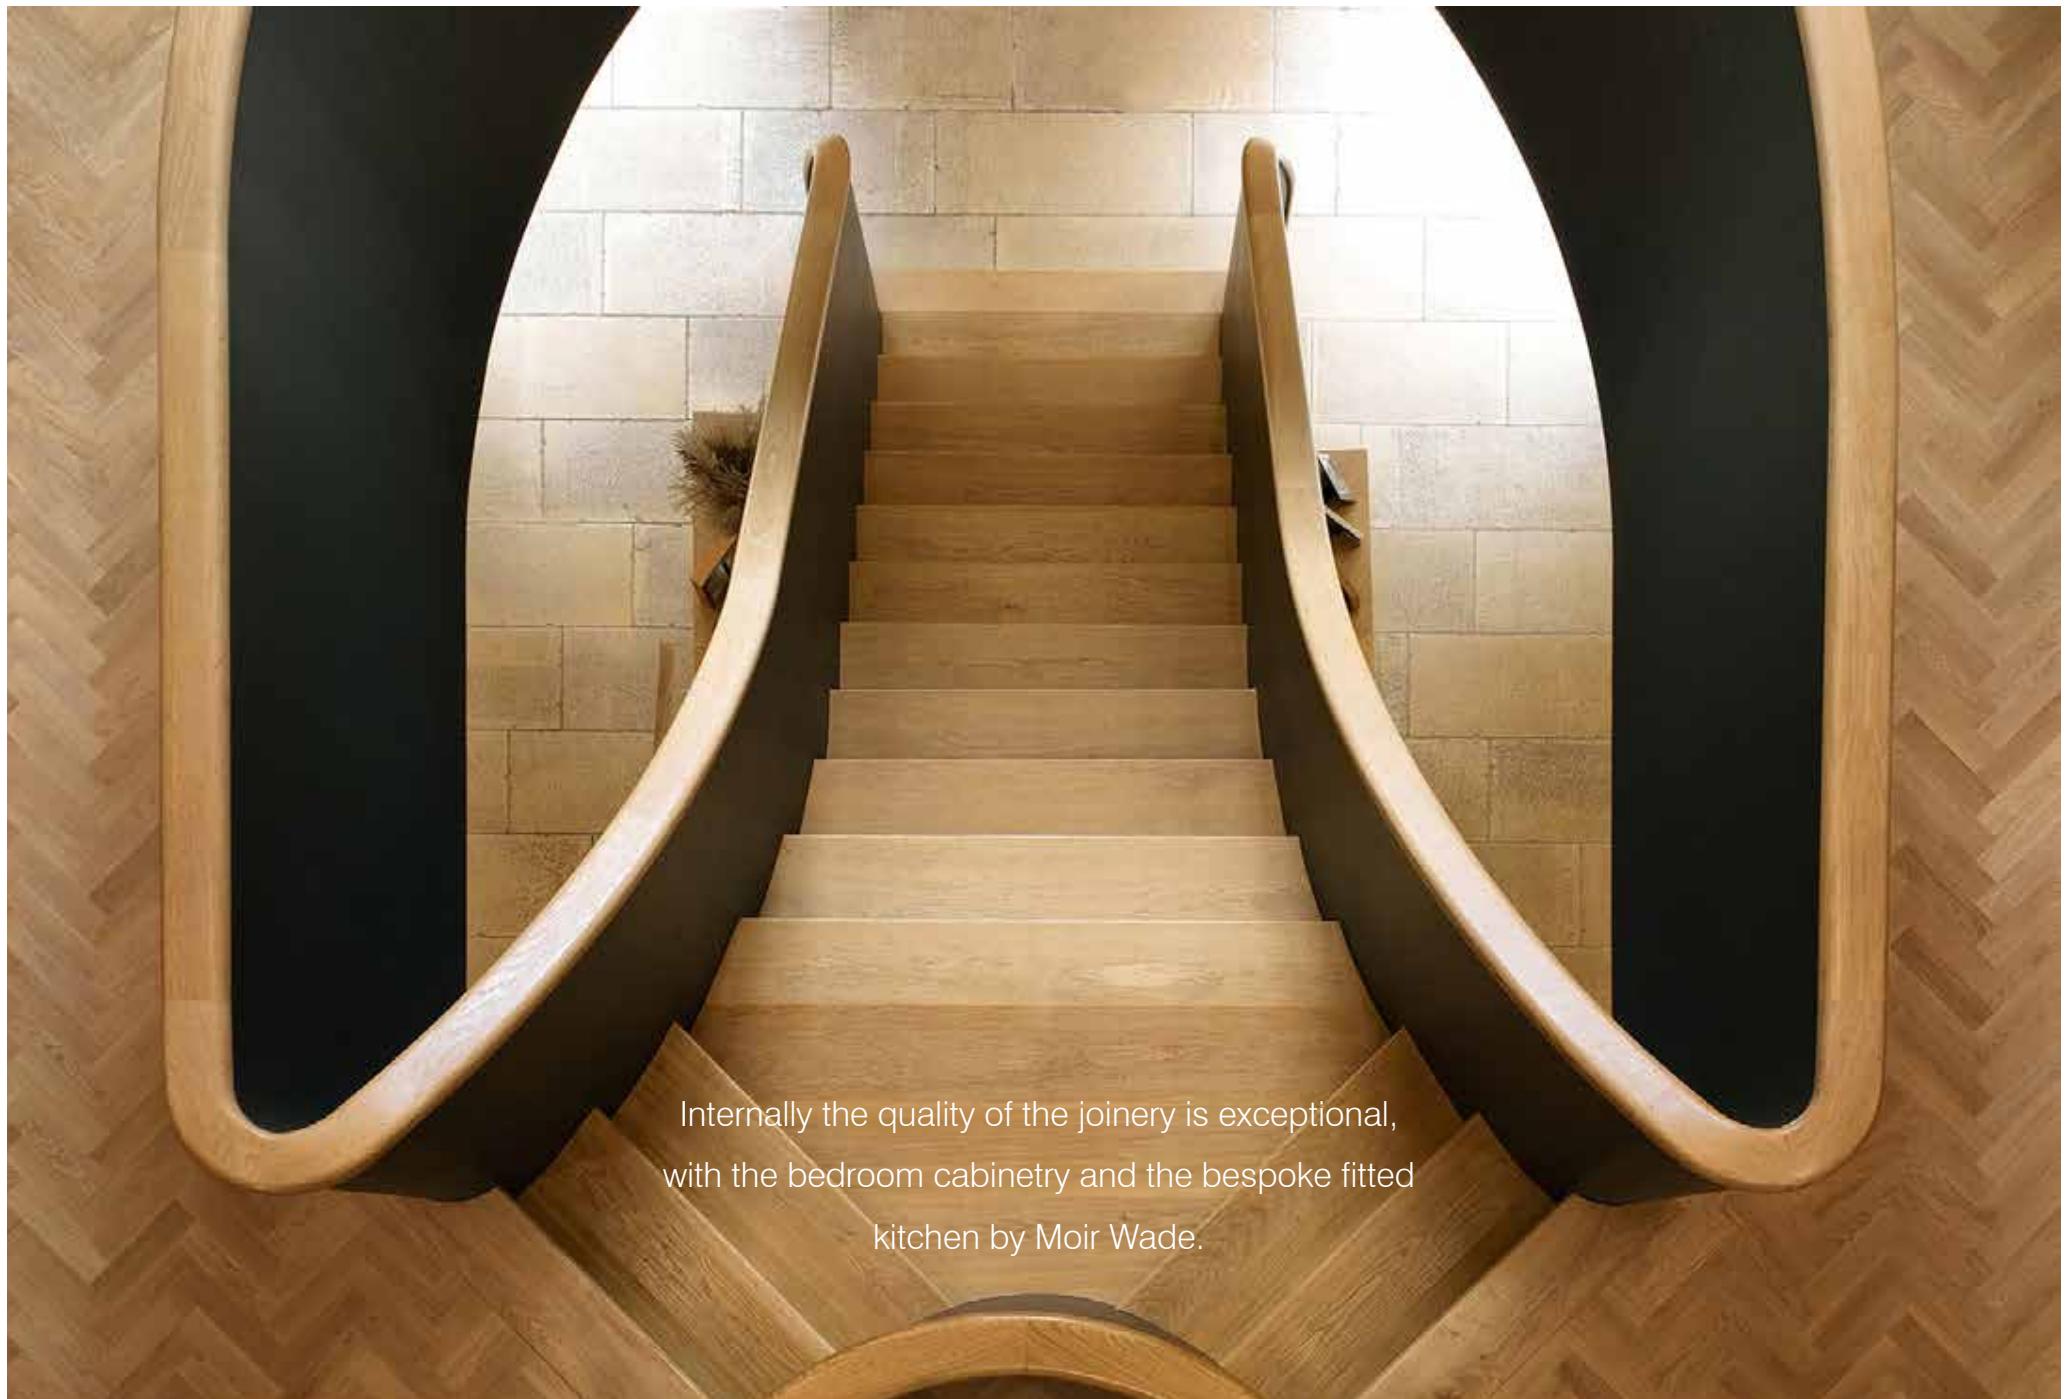

On the first and second floors are six bedrooms and four bathrooms with clever mezzanine dressing rooms.

Internally the quality of the joinery is exceptional,
with the bedroom cabinetry and the bespoke fitted kitchen by Moir Wade.
