MOUNT & MINSTER

INTRODUCTION

A stunning and historic Grade II* Listed period residence, which originally dates back in part to both the 12th and 17th Centuries, situated in a prestigious Uphill area of the City and close to the famous Cathedral. The property comprises an entrance hall with stairs leading up to the great chamber and a further staircase leading up to the first floor. On the ground floor there is a snug, dining room and cellar believed to date back to the 13th century, a utility room, superbly fitted kitchen breakfast room with appliances and four-oven Aga, an impressive orangery as well as a cloakroom and WC. On the first floor there is the magnificent oak panelled great chamber/drawing room which is believed to date back to the early 1600s and has two bay windows overlooking the garden, a fireplace with multi-fuel burner and a former priests hole. There are four bedrooms on the first floor with a well appointed family bathroom, separate WC and further shower room, whilst a separate staircase leads up to a second floor bedroom, which has a superb vaulted ceiling and access to a large vaulted and beamed loft space.

LOCATION

The city of Lincoln is one of England's most historic cities, with the impressive Norman castle and one of the finest medieval cathedrals in Europe. The city also benefits from two well-regarded universities, a fantastic entertainment district and a wealth of bars and restaurants. The property is situated on the edge of the historic bailgate area of Lincoln, a popular part of the city with picturesque streets and historic interest, as well as having a superb selection of amenities, schools and excellent transport links. The A15 and the A46 roads provide direct access to the north and south of the county. There are also direct trains to London from Lincoln.
