LOCATION

Harmston is a hugely sought after Cliff Village, with an attractive range of 'chocolate box' stone cottages and houses. The village enjoys a community pub, The Thorold Arms, as well as the pretty All Saints Parish Church dating to the 11th century, still open for worship today. Navenby, 3 miles south, offers a range of amenities, including a good primary school, a convenience store, Odling's Butchers, established in 1920, and Welbourne's Bakery, one of the longest standing artisanal bakeries in the county. It also has two pubs serving food, Macy's Brasserie and takeaways, whilst Mrs. Smith's Cottage is a popular museum illustrating a century of rural Lincolnshire life. Being one of the Cliff villages, Harmston straddles the old Roman Road, Ermine Street, as well as the Viking Way, providing wonderful country walks and much local history.

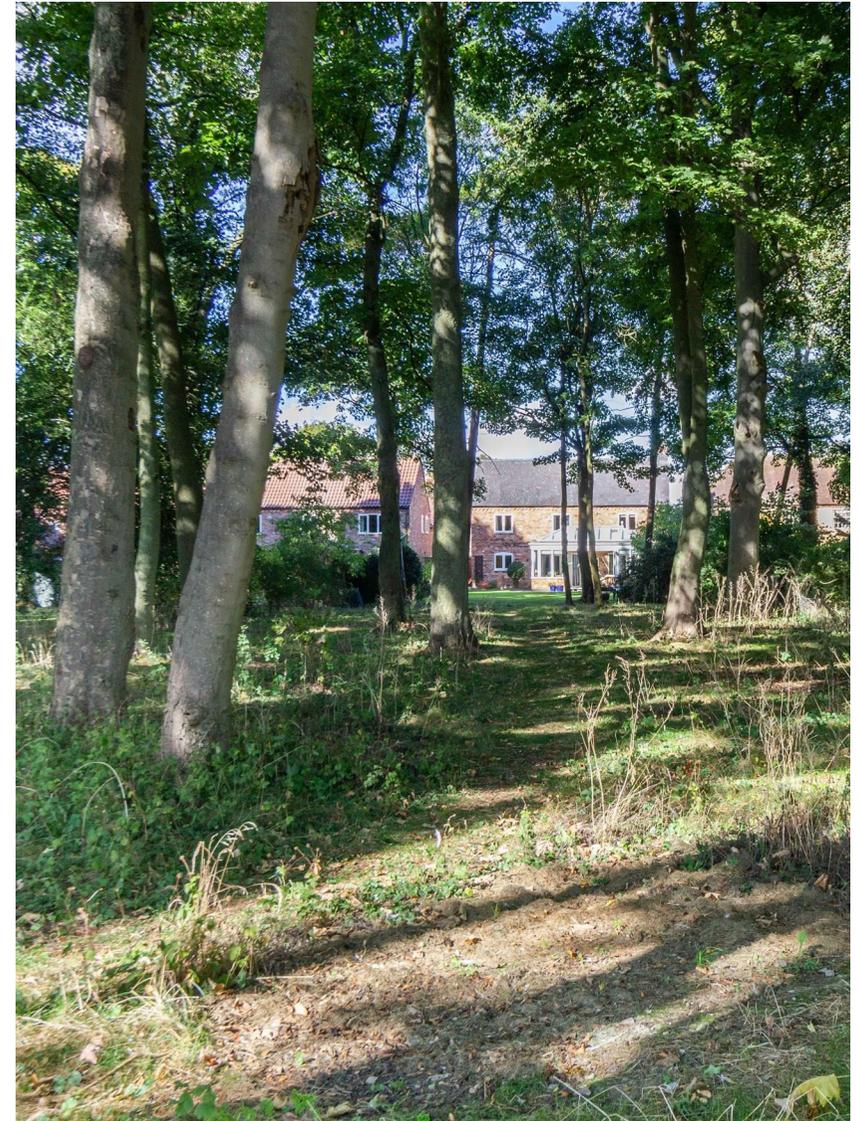

Lincoln, just 5 miles north, is internationally renowned for the 11th-century castle and Medieval Cathedral, as well as its charming architecture. The Museum of Lincolnshire Life and the Collection, which houses archaeological exhibits and art, are both popular attractions, together of course with Lincoln Castle, with its superb fortified walls and open grounds, accommodating the famous Magna Carta.

Both Newark and Grantham rail links provide easy access to London Kings Cross, the latter taking just one hour. The A1 trunk road is located just over 15 minutes towards Newark.
