INTRODUCTION

Located off West Hill, Mentone House was constructed in 1869 and is one of eight villas built by The Charterhouse, the first lessee of the property was believed to be James Reckitt. This fabulous property has been transformed into several unique high quality apartments. Residents have the advantage of communal use of the grounds. The property is secured by high fencing and remote controlled gates at entry and exit points. There is a communal parking area in front of the building. The current owners have undertaken a careful schedule of improvement and additions to their first floor apartment whilst retaining and enhancing the traditional styling of the overall building featuring high ceilings, plaster cornices and deep skirting. A south facing living space and balcony have views over the private grounds and views of the Humber Bridge.

COMMUNAL HALL & STAIRWAY

A wide door entry into a Porch area with glazed door opening out into an impressive long Hall with traditional tiled floor and ornate cornices and leading to a gently sloping staircase with two glazed windows on the Landing. At first floor level there is a door leading to a shared Lobby for Apartment 3 & 4. This Lobby has fitted storage cupboards used by the owners.
