Lansdowne Place, Hove, BN3 1FN

Offers in excess of £225,000

A first-floor flat that offers a unique opportunity to reside in a stunning Victorian building dating back to 1840. With a total area of 427 square feet, this one-bedroom property is situated within a highly desirable conservation area, making it an ideal choice for those seeking both character and convenience.

As you approach the flat, you are greeted by a beautiful Minton tile path leading to the communal entrance, where you will find the staircase that ascends to the first floor flat. Upon entering, the entrance hall welcomes you into an inviting open-plan kitchen and living room area, which boasts dual aspect windows that fill the space with natural light and provide lovely westerly views of the surrounding trees.

The kitchen is thoughtfully designed with white fitted units and space and provision for a fridge and washing machine, complete with an integrated oven and gas hob, making it a perfect space for culinary enthusiasts. The double bedroom, also facing west, offers a serene retreat, and in the hall there is built-in storage to maximise space and organisation.

The bathroom features a bath with an electric shower overhead, ensuring both comfort and practicality. Additionally, a loft hatch provides extra storage, catering to your needs for space.

This property is sold with a recently extended Lease with no ground rent payable and no onward chain, making it an attractive proposition for buyers looking to invest in a prime location. With impressive Victorian architecture and sea views at the end of the road, this flat is a convenient and practical home in a historic location.
