Location

Derek House is located just one road back from Hove seafront and around the corner is the charming Richardson Road parade of shops that include a Morrison's mini market, butchers, organic grocers, coffee shops, beauty rooms and barbers. A comprehensive range of nearby shops can also be found nearby in Portland Road and there is also easy access to Hove's main thoroughfare which offers a wider selection of shops, eateries and independent boutiques. In addition, road links are very good for Brighton city centre, London via the M23 and many towns and villages along the A259 coastal road. There are bus stops moments from the building, with this area being well served with regular bus services providing access into the city centre and surrounding towns.

There is a choice of main line train stations, Hove Station (approximately 1 mile in distance) and Portslade Station is also about a mile away, both have direct links to Gatwick and central London. This excellent and convenient location is close to several parks and recreational areas, including Wish Park and Hove Lagoon where you can enjoy water sports and enjoy sea front walks. Hove promenade is moments away where you will find Hove's newest beach-park development. This inclusive space features an outdoor sports hub with a café and terrace, beautifully landscaped gardens, wheeled-sports areas (including a skate plaza), a pump track and a roller area, as well as paddle and tennis courts.
