Burton Villas, Hove, BN3 6FN

An exquisite Edwardian semi-detached house that has a splendid blend of period elegance and modern comfort. This property boasts five double bedrooms, two inviting reception rooms and two well-appointed bathrooms, making it an ideal family home.

Built around 1910, this residence is rich in unique period features that truly sets it apart. You will be captivated by the original stained glass windows, stunning fireplaces adorned with decorative tiles and high ceilings complemented by elegant picture and dado rails. Many of the fireplaces showcase Art Nouveau tiles, framed by light wood surrounds that enhance the home's character.

The current owners have thoughtfully modernised the property while preserving its original charm, including the careful restoration of the windows, which have been fully double glazed for energy efficiency. Upon entering, you are greeted by a bright and welcoming entrance hall that leads seamlessly into the front reception room and the impressive west facing, dual-aspect kitchen diner. This space is perfect for entertaining, featuring a wood-burning stove and ample room for dining. There is a range of solid wood wall and base units with space for appliances, built in oven and hob, there are also doors to the rear garden and access to the useful storage cellar.

On the first floor there are three double bedrooms, a convenient shower room and a separate W.C. Ascend to the top floor, which retains its original layout, to discover two further double bedrooms and a bathroom. One of these rooms offers far-reaching sea views, while the other provides ample storage and access to a loft space.

Set on a corner plot, the property is surrounded by well-maintained grounds, including a driveway for off-road parking and a delightful rear garden that enjoys a west-facing aspect. This home is offered for sale with no onward chain, and is an excellent opportunity for prospective buyers seeking a blend of historical charm and contemporary living in a sought-after location.
