

Goswell Road, London, EC1V

This spacious one bedroom corner apartment is located on the fourth floor (top) of this modern purpose built block.

The South Easterly facing view is the first thing you notice when you open the front door, with floor to ceiling windows spanning the entire corner shaped lounge, which comes off an inviting entrance hall.

The L shaped lounge leads directly to a generous roof terrace with further impressive views, stepping back from the terrace you'll find a fully integrated kitchen (including dishwasher).

Back to the entrance hall is where you'll find access to the bedroom which is a double and has built in storage, additional storage can be found here too and then the entrance to the large smart bathroom suite, with a shower over bath.

The property boasts underfloor heating and is set at the back of this block, shielding much of the road noise (Goswell Road) and the block is enviably located within moments of Angel tube station.
