

Chevening Road, London, NW6

Four bedroom, three storey family home (with basement) on this popular residential road located in the heart of Queens Park.

The home has much to offer with many original features still present, from double height skirting, sash windows, stained glass windows, cornicing and working fireplaces, all of which is combined with a sympathetic finish.

Comprising as follows;

The inviting entrance hall offers a glimpse of the sheer size of the home, with a half landing to an upper and lower floor being visible, this floor is where you'll find the relaxing through lounge, with a generous bay window and partial garden views to the rear. The original doors can still be used to separate these rooms should you wish. The feature fireplace is in use and available.

A few steps down and you find a very convenient guest WC before you enter the large kitchen/diner which offers side access to the garden.

The kitchen is fully functional and fitted with all the necessary appliances and the dining area makes a great entertaining space as it leads directly to the south facing rear garden which stretches just under 150 ft and has been well maintained by the owner.

Back into the home and you'll find the first floor offering three large bedrooms, with the main to the front of the home featuring a large bay window, stunning stained glass window and it's only quaint balcony.

The home is also ripe for development with a basement level hosting a utility room and a loft extension which is where you'll find the fourth and final bedroom, with it's very own en suite.

Enviably located within moment of Kensal Rise station and Queens Park.
