Prime Choice Kettering are delighted to offer this fantastic four-bedroom mid-terrace home, situated in a popular residential area of Kettering. The property offers exceptionally spacious living accommodation across two floors and is ideal for families, first-time buyers looking for extra space, or investors.

The property welcomes you via a traditional entrance hallway leading into a bright and spacious through lounge, featuring attractive wooden flooring and plenty of natural light, creating an ideal space for both relaxing and entertaining. To the rear of the property is a well-equipped fitted kitchen with ample worktop and cupboard space, which flows conveniently into a separate dining area, perfect for family meals.

Beyond the dining room is a light-filled conservatory, providing additional living space and offering views over the rear garden. The ground floor also benefits from a modern shower room with WC, adding practicality for busy households.

Upstairs, the property comprises four well-proportioned bedrooms, including a spacious principal bedroom with extensive fitted wardrobes. The remaining bedrooms provide flexible space suitable for children, guests, or a home
