

Stockton Heath Greenbank Gardens

Set within this quiet cul-de-sac location bordering Stockton Heath and Grappenhall with a mix of maturing residents and young families retaining an excellent sense of community.

This 1930s extended semi-detached property boasts many original features including cast iron fireplaces, stained glass leaded glazed windows, picture rails and coving. Externally, there is a block paved driveway set adjacent to a walled garden with pink magnolia tree whilst to the rear, there is a generous 'Indian' stone walled patio and mature private garden with summerhouse and shed. In addition, there is a useful workshop with air-conditioning and separate office space which has been re-purposed from the original garage.

The accommodation, presented over two storeys comprises an entrance porch with attractive arched feature, 'Quarry' tiling and an original stained glass front door leading to the entrance hall which features polished wooden flooring, bay fronted lounge with a feature fireplace, open-plan 'L' shaped 'Shaker' country style kitchen with 'Belfast' sink, dining room and large glass roofed garden room extension complete with a useful utility / boot room / laundry with a recently installed 'Worcester Bosch' gas boiler. Upstairs, the main bedroom is located to the front with a bay window and a range of fitted furniture, second bedroom overlooking the garden and the third is a single as expected. The extended bathroom enjoys a four piece bathroom suite incorporating an off-set corner bath, tiled cubicle with a thermostatic shower, fitted units with pelmet lighting and underfloor heating.
