

Lower Whitley

Total area: approx. 124.7 sq. metres (1341.8 sq. feet)

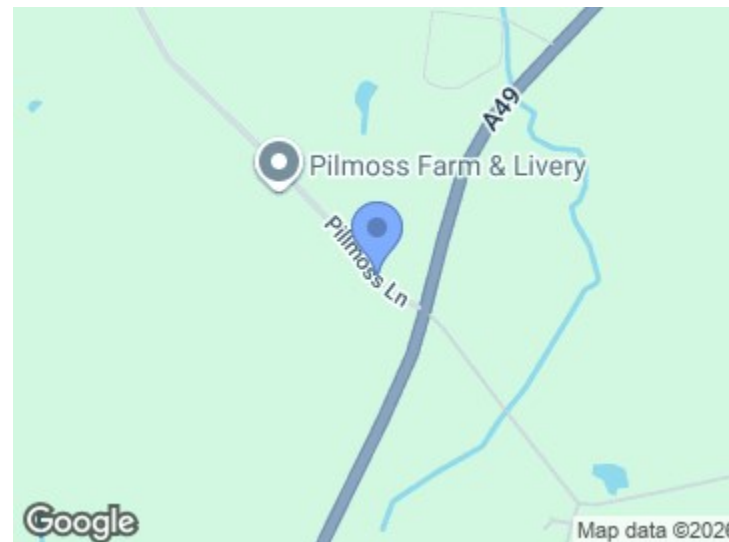

Location

Whitley is a village and civil parish in Cheshire, surrounded by Antrobus, Comberbach, Little Leigh and Dutton. It also borders Daresbury in Halton borough as well as Hatton and Stretton in Warrington borough.

Whitley lies mostly in the northern part of a triangle of land bounded by the A49 (Warrington to Whitchurch) to the west, the A559 (Warrington to Northwich) to the east and the A533 (Runcorn to Northwich) to the south. Buses run through the village from Warrington to Northwich and vice versa. These are operated by Warrington Borough Transport.

Whitley Village School is a primary school providing infant and junior education for the children of Whitley and Dutton.

For those requiring access to the major business centres of the north west, including Manchester and Liverpool International Airports, access can be gained via the M56 motorway at Stretton (Junction 10 providing links to the M6 and M62).
