

Grappenhall

Location

Grappenhall is a semi-rural village in Warrington Cheshire, within commuting distance to the Lymm junctions of the M6 & M56 motorways. Grappenhall borders the villages of Thelwall and Stockton Heath of which both have a selection of shops. The village is also sited between the 'Ship Canal' and the 'Bridgewater Canal' including attractive parkland, canals, streams and the 'Trans Pennine Trail' which all provide scenic walking, cycling and running routes.

Along with the church, the centre of the village contains two pubs, the Parr Arms and the Ram's Head, and St Wilfrid's Primary School. Bradshaw Community Primary School is located north of the village centre both of which are assessed favourably.

Grappenhall Kildonan Road

Accommodation

Certain to be of interest to many, this post-war semi-detached property has benefitted from a catalogue of renovations over the past three years including but not limited to a partial rewire and new consumer unit, central heating radiators and piping, some replastering and new roof over the kitchen. On the cosmetic side, the prime features include the 'Shaker' style dining kitchen, utility, cloakroom and four piece bathroom suite, all complemented by a neutral colour scheme with some characterful features.

In addition to the above, a further aspect of particular note is the size of the rear garden, a trait not normally associated with similar properties in the area. Internally, this tastefully appointed home comprises an entrance porch, hallway, lounge with a decorative chimney recess, generous sitting room / dining room with an exposed brick feature wall and 'French' doors, extended dining kitchen complete with appliances, utility room and cloakroom with WC. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and an eye catching four piece traditional bathroom suite with a 'Roll Top' bath as its standout feature. Externally, there are large gardens, driveway parking and a garage.
