LOCATION

Kirkbymoorside is an historic and attractive market town, situated at the foot of the North York Moors and adjacent to the A170 which connects the Yorkshire coast at Scarborough with the A19 at Thirsk and the A1. Road connections to a number of towns and cities are therefore, very good. The town centre comprises a number of uses, including retail, leisure, commercial and residential. Major new residential and commercial developments have taken place on the outskirts and within the town. The town has a strong residential and visitor catchment, with a thriving tourist sector, given its idyllic situation at the southern foot of the North York Moors National Park.

PLANNING

The unit has most recently been used as a café but could be suitable for a wide range of uses such as retail, showroom, office, healthcare. This is an option only and interested parties must make their own enquiries regarding planning. The property is Grade II listed.
