Inside

An entrance lobby with staircase leads off into a cozy sitting room with wood burning stove and a throughway into a generous dining area. The contemporary kitchen provides a range of base and wall storage cupboards, complemented by an integrated touch control hob and a double oven and grill. The kitchen also features painted ceiling beams and a skylight.

Leading off the kitchen is a very useful rear lobby/utility room with storage cupboard and access out into the rear courtyard.

The first floor landing features stripped pine period doors leading off into 2 double bedrooms and stylish bathroom with heated towel ladder, waterfall taps and a twin headed shower over the bath. A steep staircase off the landing leads up into a versatile attic room with a Velux skylight and glorious far reaching rural views.

Other internal features of note include a gas fired central heating system and double glazing.

Outside

A gated pathway leads up from the "on street" parking and the front garden currently provides a low maintenance area with veg beds and screened wheelie bin area.

At the rear there is a south facing courtyard and seating area plus 2 timber built storage sheds.
