Inside

The ground floor living space on offer includes a 19' (5.7m) long living room featuring a wealth of exposed beams, fabulous rustic redbrick fireplace with wood burning stove, storage cupboards, staircase and a door into a beautifully appointed cottage kitchen that includes granite worktops and generous storage complemented by a period style sink unit with timber drainer top, integrated fridge, oven and hob and a door out into the rear garden.

The first floor landing leads off into the main bedroom with period fireplace, exposed beams, built-in wardrobe and natural floorboards, 1 single bedroom and a superb period style bathroom with high flush wc and a freestanding claw leg bath tub with period style monsoon shower above.

Other internal features of note include double glazing, LPG fired radiator central heating and a drop down ladder on the landing to allow access up into a boarded loft storage.

Outside

The small front garden is mainly lawn and offers the potential to create off street parking, in a similar format to the neighbouring cottages.

The delightful 90' long rear garden features a paved seating area, lawn, flowerbed borders and a vegetable garden with brick built storage shed.
