The gardens front and rear are communal and do not belong to individual leaseholders.

No parking spaces are allocated to individual flats. Leaseholders can park anywhere on site but obviously not directly in front of garages to inhibit access.

No restrictions on ownership, however you should note is that the flats have a specific lease restriction mainly that they cannot be rented and must be occupied by the buyer. If either of these two restrictions are breached then the freeholder has a right to take over the property.

Local Area Information

Centred around Homestead Way, the neighbourhood is primarily residential, featuring a mix of houses and small apartment developments. Residents benefit from good access to local amenities, schools, healthcare services, and public transport links, while Northampton town centre and the railway station are only a short distance away. The area falls within the Northampton North parliamentary constituency and has been an established residential location since the 1980s.

The wider NN2 district is known for its combination of urban convenience and community character. Nearby districts such as Kingsley Park and Kingsthorpe offer local shops, cafés, parks, and leisure facilities, making the area attractive to families and professionals alike. Residents enjoy easy access to major road networks, including routes connecting to the M1 motorway, while Northampton's cultural attractions, retail centres, and employment opportunities are within easy reach. The neighbourhood provides a balance between suburban living and access to the wider amenities of Northampton, contributing to its appeal as a well-connected residential area.
