An executive detached, stone fronted home, set on a large plot approaching a quarter of an acre (0.22), situated at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in the sought after village of Piddington; an ideal location for commuters seeking a rural village location, with ease of access to Northampton, Milton Keynes, Newport Pagnell and the M1 motorway. The property has accommodation comprising; an entrance hall, dual aspect lounge with views over the front and the rear gardens, a separate dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, utility room and a cloakroom W.C. on the ground floor. To the first floor there is a master bedroom with an ensuite shower room and a large dressing room that could be turned to use as a fourth bedroom, two further double bedrooms and a refitted family bath and shower room. Outside, there are generous gardens to the front, side and rear with the frontage having been landscaped for low maintenance and the rear, with an expansive lawn, enjoys a considerable degree of privacy. Benefits include; majority uPVC double glazing, gas fired radiator heating with a new boiler fitted in 2022, a large drive with off road parking for several vehicles leading to a double garage with a remote control roller door.

This property offers a tremendous opportunity for further development (subject to planning) and viewing is essential to fully appreciate the scope of the accommodation and plot on offer.

Location

Piddington is a quiet and attractive village with no through road and popular with commuters being set off of the B526 Newport Pagnell Road with ease of access to Northampton, Wootton, Bedford, and Milton Keynes, as well as being within easy reach of the M1 at Junction 15 and Northampton Railway station. The village boasts St John the Baptist Church, and is in walking distance of Salcey Forest and neighbouring Hackleton, with its shared village hall and Longland Meadow open space, post office/local shop and Primary School. Walkers, runners and riders can enjoy many footpaths and bridleways across open fields in all directions and this rarely available home offers the tranquillity of rural living.
