This traditional two bedroom terrace has a fresh, inviting feel, having recently undergone a full programme of redecoration. Behind its classic frontage, the home opens into a welcoming hallway leading to a comfortable lounge and a separate dining room — two distinct living spaces that offer flexibility for everyday life and entertaining. The kitchen sits to the rear, with a useful lobby beyond and a ground-floor bathroom. Upstairs, two well proportioned double bedrooms provide calm, private spaces. Modern comforts include UPVC double glazing and gas-fired radiator heating.

The location is a real advantage. From the front door, you can stroll into Rugby town centre or walk to the railway station, where mainline services reach London Euston in around 50 minutes and Birmingham New Street in approximately 30. The property also enjoys excellent access to the region's motorway network, including the M1, M6 and M45.

Everything you need is close by: shops, restaurants, traditional pubs, Rugby Theatre, the library, and the green open space of Caldecott Park. Rugby School and its historic surroundings add further character to this well connected, amenity rich setting.
