

15 Radial House Governors Walk

, Portsmouth, PO3 6LT

Offers in excess of £250,000

Set within the impressive and historic development on Governors Walk, this beautifully presented two-bedroom apartment offers an exceptional blend of period character, generous proportions and contemporary living.

Originally built in 1877 as HMP Kingston, the landmark building was carefully converted into residential apartments in 2022, preserving its distinctive heritage while creating stylish modern homes.

Offering an impressive 941 sq ft of accommodation, the apartment provides a fantastic sense of space throughout. The generous reception room creates a bright and welcoming area for relaxing and entertaining, complemented by two well-proportioned bedrooms offering flexibility for a variety of buyers.

There are also two stylish bathrooms, with both bath and shower facilities, providing added convenience for couples, sharers, or visiting guests.

A further highlight is the allocated parking, an especially valuable benefit in Portsmouth and a fantastic addition to this unique home.

Combining spacious accommodation, modern finishes, allocated parking and the fascinating character of a historic Portsmouth landmark, this is a truly distinctive property with plenty to offer.
