Offers Over
£450,000

Set in an idyllic rural location and approached via a long private drive through open farmland, this beautiful detached home perfectly combines country charm, space, and versatility. Enjoying panoramic views across open fields, the property includes a self-contained two-bedroom holiday cottage, ideal for extended family, guest accommodation, or generating additional income.

The main residence offers a spacious kitchen/diner with a red Rayburn and Neff hob, and a welcoming lounge featuring a log burner and French doors opening to the garden. Upstairs are three generous double bedrooms served by a family bathroom. The adjoining cottage provides its own sunroom, lounge with log burner, kitchen, two bedrooms, and bathroom, making it a highly flexible addition to the home.

Externally, the property is surrounded by well-maintained gardens, including a front lawn with a decking area enjoying countryside views, and a fenced side garden with a treehouse, laundry shed with electricity, and a large storage shed. A private driveway offers ample parking for six or more vehicles.

This exceptional home is perfect for those seeking peaceful countryside living with space for family life, entertaining, or running a small holiday-let business – all within a picturesque rural setting accessed by its own private drive.
