LOCATION

Croeshowell is a small rural area located on the edge of the village of Llay in the county borough of Wrexham, near the Welsh-English border. The area lies close to Rossett and Burton and is characterised by open countryside, lanes, and a mix of detached properties and farms, giving it a semi-rural atmosphere. The Croes Howell is a well-known local pub and restaurant situated on Straight Mile, acting as a local landmark and meeting place for residents. The location also benefits from good transport links, particularly via the nearby A483 road, which provides convenient access to the larger towns and cities of Wrexham and Chester.
