Interior

This home abounds with period features such as high ceilings, bright and spacious rooms which have deep skirting boards, original doors and picture rails.

Ground Floor:

Entering through a porch with an original tiled floor, the hallway has a lovely wide staircase leading to the upper floor and a large storage cupboard beneath. The sitting room, with a working fireplace, has a bay window and is flooded with light. A second reception/family room has built in storage and a fireplace with log burner and a double glazed door to the sun room with its terracotta and cream tiled flooring and access to the garden.

Moving through the house you reach the dining room, also with a fireplace and burner and beautiful ornate surround. At the rear is the kitchen with the main coal fired burner that sits upon a slate hearth. There is space and plumbing for a washing machine and dishwasher, a Belfast sink and a freestanding oven within the black and white wall and base units that have a wooden worksurface flowing around. The final room is a lovely bright utility room which has doors to the garden.

First Floor:

On this level are four bedrooms, a family shower room and a separate WC as well as a fixed staircase to the loft (which was once used as a dark room) and is now an excellent storage space but could be converted (STPP) to another room. There is a modern shower room with a large walk in shower cubicle and basin with a separate WC further along the hallway.

All the bedrooms are bright and airy with three double bedrooms all containing original feature fireplaces and a single bedroom that could become a great study/office.

Exterior

At the fore of this handsome property is a gravel driveway with parking for two vehicles, a raised flower bed with mature planting and a side entrance gate. The rear garden stretches out from the paved patio to a lawned area and a trellis with an archway at the midpoint, further on from here is a greenhouse, pond, apple tree and plenty of growing beds for fruit or vegetables. Within this peaceful and quiet outside area are several garden stores - one with power.

Cowes is rich in nautical heritage and an international mecca for sailing, culminating in Cowes Week held in August each year. It has quick access to Southampton via the more modern Red Jet as well as many marinas and sailing clubs dotted along the waterfront.

Within the High Street there are two supermarkets, many boutique shops, pubs and eateries.
