Interior

Upon entering through a newly installed PVCu front door, you're welcomed by a light and airy hallway with exposed timber flooring that flows into the principal reception spaces. The front reception room is bright and spacious, offering a versatile area for a lounge, dining room or study, complete with access through to the rear.

To the rear, the generous kitchen/diner offers bespoke wooden base units, a traditional butler sink, space for family dining and double French doors that lead out onto the private courtyard garden.

On the first and second floors you'll find five well-sized double bedrooms, a spacious family bathroom featuring a bath, separate shower, basin and WC, and a further shower room with WC on the second floor – ideal for busy households or visiting guests.

Exterior

The rear patio garden is low maintenance and benefits from rear access onto Beckford Road. A perfect spot for alfresco dining, storing sailing equipment or simply relaxing in the warmer months.

Cowes

Cowes is rich in nautical heritage and an international mecca for sailing, culminating in Cowes Week held in August each year. It has quick access to Southampton via the more modern Red Jet as well as many marinas and sailing clubs dotted along the waterfront.

Within the High Street there are two supermarkets, many boutique shops, pubs and eateries. Historical Northwood House & Park hosts weddings, fairs, concerts and conferences with outside space to enjoy walks. The chain ferry links Cowes to East Cowes where you can find the Red Funnel car and passenger ferry to the mainland
