Cowes

Cowes is rich in nautical heritage and an international mecca for sailing, culminating in Cowes Week held in August each year. It has quick access to Southampton via the more modern Red Jet as well as many marinas and sailing clubs dotted along the waterfront.

Within the High Street there are two supermarkets, many boutique shops, pubs and eateries. Historical Northwood House & Park hosts weddings, fairs, concerts and conferences with outside space to enjoy walks. The chain ferry links Cowes to East Cowes where the Red Funnel car and passenger ferry to the mainland is situated.

Approaching The Property

Set within a quiet residential area, this attractive modern brick property is on the elevated side of the street and stretches upwards over four floors to make the most of its views out to sea. A hardstand for a vehicle is set before the wooden garage door, matching wood porch area with overhanging shelter and solid entrance door with 'port hole' window.

Ground Floor

A wide airy hallway, with a carpeted staircase that rises up ahead, has light tiled flooring that stretches out to the bedroom and utility/shower room on this level. As with the rest of this modern property, there is soft neutral decor and stylish fittings throughout. The walls, ceilings and woodwork have been fully redecorated, making it fresh and clean. An integral door leads into the garage with its additional storage space and power and light. The utility room is a convenient combination of a large tiled walk-in shower and wc as well as there being space/plumbing for a washing machine, tumble dryer and basin. Also on this floor is a bright large double bedroom with built in wardrobes and a rear door to an outside area.

First Floor

Off the passageway are two large double bedrooms and a family bathroom. This generous room has a white suite with contrast tiling around the bath and a cupboard containing the unvented water heater. The airy rear double bedroom has contemporary double built in wardrobes. The principal bedroom is generous in size and has triple built in cupboards and an en-suite shower room decorated with aqua coloured tiles and a modern wall hung basin and concealed cistern wc.

Second Floor

A corridor, with doors either end, leads from the lower staircase to the flight of stairs to the next. This area is flooded with light from the velux window on the upper floor. Either end of this passageway leads to the 'hub of the home' on this level, the magnificent kitchen, dining and seating area. There are sliding doors to a 'Juliet' balcony at the front of the property and wide double doors opening to the outside decked garden at the rear. A very sociable open plan gathering space with warm wooden flooring and neutral decor. It has a seating area looking out to the moving seascape which can also be viewed from the dining area within the middle of this spacious double aspect room. The kitchen curves around at the opposite end with its sleek white wall and base units that contain an integral dishwasher, low level fridge, low level freezer, wide Miele oven and 5 ring gas hob; a dark grey worksurface flows over the top. Additional storage cupboards, with a floor to ceiling wine rack, can be found on the opposite side of this very well appointed kitchen area that has a sunny aspect overlooking the garden.

Third Floor

A fabulous light and bright sitting room that hugely benefits from being double aspect and with balconies at each end of the room. The smaller recessed rear balcony overlooks the garden and has double sliding doors to gain entrance. The full width veranda at the fore, with its watery vista out to the Solent, has glass and metal balustrades that not only give unrestricted views from outside, the floor to ceiling oversized sliding doors gives almost clear views from inside the spacious room. Currently cleverly zoned into an office area and large restful relaxation space where there can be found a modern gas fireplace set within the chimney breast at mid point.

Rear Garden

Accessed via the double doors on the second floor, decking stretches out to a good sized, low maintenance outside space. There is plenty of room for outside furniture where you can relax in this stylish garden. Contemporary slatted fencing is around three sides of this garden with a gate leading to the communal area and bins area with rear access to Cliff Road itself. Mature bushes and palms are within the raised flower bed and to the left of here, down a flight of wooden steps and beneath the decking, there is further outside storage space as well as a secure lock up area.
