Asking Price £250,000

The Property

Situated in the sought-after village of Eriswell, this charming two-bedroom semi-detached cottage offers an exciting opportunity for buyers looking to create a characterful home of their own. This Property is offered chain free, the property is ideal for first-time buyers, couples or those seeking a home with plenty of potential.

The ground floor features two separate reception rooms, both offering a wealth of traditional character. The lounge benefits from a brick-built fireplace with a wood-burning stove, creating a welcoming focal point, while the dining room provides flexible space for everyday dining or entertaining.

To the rear, the fitted kitchen offers a range of wall and base units, work surfaces and space for appliances, with windows providing plenty of natural light. A ground-floor bathroom, which includes a walk in shower, WC and wash basin.

Upstairs, the property provides two bedrooms, both featuring carpet and useful storage. The individual layout adds to the cottage's charm and character. There is also an ensuite wc upstairs.

Outside, the front garden is enclosed by established hedging, with a pathway leading to the entrance. To the rear is a private courtyard-style garden. Access to the side is provided via a right of way over the neighbouring property.

The current owners also rent a garage and parking space located to the rear of the property, with further details available upon request.

This property offers all the charm, character and history of an older home, without the restrictions of being listed, giving buyers greater flexibility to make future changes, subject to the necessary permissions.

Offering character, potential and a desirable village setting, this distinctive chain-free cottage presents a fantastic opportunity to modernise and personalise a home to suit your own style. Early viewing is highly recommended.
