Watton is a market town in the Breckland district of Norfolk, England, about 25 miles (40 km) west-southwest of Norwich and 15 miles (24 km) northeast of Thetford. The annual Wayland Agricultural Show in its west is one of the oldest one-day such shows in England. Watton is a bustling market town with many independent shops. The clock tower dates from 1679, and houses a fire warning bell. St. Mary's Church is unusual in that it is wider than it is longer. Nearby Wayland Wood is connected to the 16th C. story of the 'Babes in the Wood' – depicted on the town sign.
