Nansledan

Nansledan is a 540-acre extension to the coastal town of Newquay on the north coast of Cornwall in South West England. The name is Cornish for ‘broad valley’.

It is being led by the Duchy of Cornwall, which owns most of the land that will make up Nansledan. The Duchy is a private estate established in 1337 which funds the public, charitable and private activities of the Prince of Wales and his family.

Over time Nansledan will evolve into a community of more than 4,000 homes supporting a similar number of jobs. It will include its own High Street, church, school and public spaces, helping to meet the future needs of Newquay in a complementary and sustainable way.

Location

Nansledan is within two miles of Newquay town centre on the rugged north coast of Cornwall in South West England. Newquay is a popular seaside town and family holiday destination, home to some of the best bathing and surfing beaches in the UK, including Fistral Beach above (this is not a view from Nansledan).

Newquay has its own railway station accessed via the Par branch line. Cornwall Airport Newquay is just four miles from Nansledan and has year-round flights from London Gatwick and Manchester, plus a range of seasonal services.

All of Nansledan will have the ability to connect to superfast broadband.
