The Property

Set on the prestigious Henver Road in Newquay, this luxury coastal home delivers high-end design with practical family living. From its minimalist porch to its sun-soaked rear garden, every inch of the property is crafted with care.

Enter into a striking hallway with tiled flooring and a bespoke oak staircase. The open-plan living space is a masterpiece of Japandi design—clean lines, warm textures, and natural light. A bold turquoise kitchen with Dekton worktops, Samsung appliances, Quooker tap, and an island with built-in seating is both functional and stylish. A separate lounge with engineered oak flooring and a bay window offers a serene retreat, ideal for relaxing evenings.

Bedrooms & Bathrooms

Upstairs, four thoughtfully designed bedrooms feature engineered oak floors and warm, natural tones. The primary suite includes a walk-in dressing area and a designer Lusso Stone en-suite with black accents and a walk-in waterfall shower.

The family bathroom mirrors this elegant aesthetic, with matte black fixtures and a sleek bath/shower combination. A fifth bedroom, currently a home office, adapts to your lifestyle.

Garden & Outdoor Living

Step outside to a south-facing garden that captures the essence of Cornwall's coastal charm. Enjoy a decked terrace, landscaped lawn, vegetable patch, and hot-and-cold outdoor shower—perfect after a beach day.

Ample driveway parking, access to a detached garage, and seamless connection to the annexe add practicality and appeal.

The Detached Annexe

A beautiful extension of the main residence, the fully insulated annexe features a handcrafted plywood kitchenette, smart layout, built-in dining bench, and a minimalist en-suite with matte black fittings. Perfect as a holiday let, guest accommodation, or multi-generational living.
