Location

Perched high on the Pentire Peninsula in Newquay, 28 Pentire crescent it 175 meters from the River Gannel Estuary, and a short walk from the town's trendy shops, pubs, and restaurants.

In the immediate vicinity is the protected headland of Pentire which is located between Fistral Beach and the stunning River Gannel Estuary and home to the spectacularly located boutique eatery and hotel of the Lewinnick Lodge. The Gannel Estuary separates the quaint village of Crantock from Newquay. When the tide is in and you can no longer reach the sandy passage by foot, you can take the delightful ferry from the Fernpit Café, established in 1910 which is still run by the same family.

Newquay International Airport is approximately seven miles distance from Newquay allowing you the freedom of travel all on your doorstep.
