

16 Kelso Road, Carshalton, SM5 1AP

Offers over £360,000

This extended mid terraced family home enjoys a quiet residential setting and is ideally located for the areas excellent transport links, outstanding schools and popular leisure & recreational facilities.

Benefiting from a welcoming porch that leads into a bright and generous size living room with feature fireplace and wood flooring. The modern kitchen is thoughtfully designed with integrated appliances and ample food preparation and storage space. The kitchen leads to the separate dining room / conservatory that in turn leads to the garden, also on the ground floor is a bespoke bathroom suite with rain shower, floating wash basin in vanity surround and has an internal window & vented extractor.

On the first floor are Three family size bedrooms all with bright aspects (two generous doubles and one single).

